"Chasing the Sun" by Tracie Peterson is a Christian / Clean Romance that is quite entertaining to read. Despite my initial fears the author doesn't try to sell you her faith, although it is important to her lead character. The story uses all the ingredients one can expect to find in a Western novel, there's the shadow of the raging Civil War ...

Chasing the Sun is an interesting book, which is certainly worth reading. We are creatures of rhythm, not least those generated by being inseparable from our nearest star. Our culture has ceased to be aware of this, and Linda Geddes has done us a great favour by reminding us of it. Most of what she writes my intuition agrees with.
